Term Life with Accidental Death & Dismemberment (AD&D) Insurance

Group 1: All benefits eligible regular Employees in active employment in the United States with the Employer paid on US payroll not electing the $50,000 benefit, excluding Independent Contractors, Temporary, Seasonal, Leased and Collective Bargaining Employees

How does it work?

You keep coverage for a set period of time, or “term.” If you die during that term, the money can help your family pay for basic living expenses, final arrangements, tuition and more. AD&D Insurance is also available, which can pay a benefit if you survive an accident but have certain serious injuries. It can pay an additional amount if you die from a covered accident.

Why Choose Unum?

Your employer is offering you this coverage at no cost to you.

What else is included?

A “Living” Benefit

If you are diagnosed with a terminal illness with less than 24 months to live, you can request 90% of your life insurance benefit (up to $1,000,000) while you are still living. This amount will be taken out of the death benefit and may be taxable.

Waiver of premium

Your cost may be waived if you are totally disabled for a period of time.

Portability

You may be able to keep coverage if you leave the company, retire or change the number of hours you work.

Employees or dependents who have a sickness or injury having a material effect on life expectancy at the time their group coverage ends are not eligible for portability.

Who can get Term Life coverage?

If you are actively at work at least 20 hours per week, you can receive coverage for:

You:	You can receive 2 times your earnings up to a maximum of $1,000,000. You can get up to $1,000,000 with no medical underwriting. Your employer is paying for the cost of this coverage on your behalf, but you will pay imputed income on amounts that exceed $50,000 per IRS.

Who can get Accidental Death & Dismemberment (AD&D) coverage?

You:	You can get 2 times your earnings of AD&D coverage up to a maximum of $1,000,000.
------	--

No medical underwriting is required for AD&D coverage.

Active Employment

Eligible employees must be actively at work to apply for coverage. Being actively at work means on the day the employee applies for coverage, the individual must be working at one of his/her company's business locations; or the individual must be working at a location where he/she is required to represent the company. If applying for coverage on a day that is not a scheduled workday, the employee will be considered actively at work as of his/her last scheduled workday. Employees are not considered actively at work if they are on a leave of absence or lay off.

Employees must be U.S. citizens or legally authorized to work in the U.S. to receive coverage.

Employees must be actively employed in the United States with the Employer to receive coverage. Employees must be insured under the plan for spouses and dependents to be eligible for coverage.

AD&D specific exclusions and limitations:

Accidental death and dismemberment benefits will not be paid for losses caused by, contributed to by, or resulting from:

- Disease of the body; diagnostic, medical or surgical treatment or mental disorder as set forth in the latest edition of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM)
- Suicide, self-destruction while sane, intentionally self-inflicted injury while sane or self-inflicted injury while insane
